

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

(FAQs are intended to provide general information and guidance needed to avail the GST concession certificate. The contents must be read in conjunction with OM/Office orders as issued from time to time. The contents are not intended to be applicable to specific/exceptional cases and no such claims may be made under it. Whenever any difference in interpretation of meaning and/or content of the facts stated here vis-à-vis the original OM/office order arises, the latter will be treated as final and binding).

1) Who is eligible for this benefit?

Any Orthopedic Physically handicapped person having permanent disability of 40% & above can apply for the benefit under the scheme as per Notification of Ministry of Finance no14/2019 – Integrated Tax Rate dated 30th Sep 2019.

2) Which type of vehicles can be purchased under this scheme?

In Compliance to the Notification of Ministry of Finance dated 30th September 2019, Cars (automatic or manual) having length less than or equal to 4m and engine capacity of not more than 1200 cc (petrol) or 1500 cc (diesel) qualify for purchase under this scheme.

3) How much & which type of concessions can be availed on the strength of the GST certificate?

As per Ministry of Finance (MoF) notification no.14/2019 – Integrated Tax Rate dated 30th Sep 2019 and notification no1/2017 – Compensation Cess (Rate) dated 28th June 2017, concession of 10% on GST can be availed through GST certificate and zero cess would be applicable. A person availing this certificate will have to pay 18% GST & no cess instead of 28% GST & applicable cess on purchase of car.

4) When & how to apply?

The applicant has to apply for the benefit before purchase of the vehicles. GST refund after the vehicle is purchased would not be possible.

Steps to be followed by the applicants for applying under this scheme is mentioned below:

Go to the website: www.dhi.nic.in>schemes>GST concession to PWDS>GST guidelines dated 21st April 2020.

5) Which documentation are required for applying?

Duly filled annexures A, B, C (legible documents) & copy of Aadhar are required.

6) Does an applicant need to obtain a fresh Medical Certificate in a particular format for availing this benefit?

No.

A person having Unique Disability Id card (issued by Govt. of India), Disability certificate (issued by State Govt. or District Govt. bearing the proper signature and seal of the issuing authority), do not need a fresh Medical Certificate.

Annexure B is mandatory with the application.

However, signature/countersignature by doctor(s) in Annexure B is not required if the applicant submits either the copy of Unique Disability Id card (issued by Govt. of India), Disability certificate (issued by State Govt. or District Govt. bearing the proper signature and seal of the issuing authority), as mentioned above.

7) What is the time taken in the process of getting the certificate?

The certificate is issued within a month of receipt of the application completed in all respects.

8) Is there any validity period of the certificate such issued?

The certificate is valid for a period of 3 months from the date of issuance.

9) What a person would do if he could not make the purchase within 3 months of issuance of certificate?

In such a case, an applicant to whom the certificate is issued, has to send a request letter along with the reason for extending the validity of the certificate issued alongwith supporting papers. Based on the merit of request, the validity of the certificate is extended.

10) Can the dealer be changed after receipt of the certificate?

In such a case, an applicant to whom the certificate is issued, has to send a request letter along with the reason and letter from the dealer stating that the applicant has not used availed the benefit of the certificate for purchasing the vehicle from the dealer.

11) Where to complaint in case Car Dealer or RTO do not honour GST certificate issued by DHI.

In such case, the matter may be brought to the notice of Federation of Automobile Dealers Association of India (FADA) and Ministry of Road Transport & Highways respectively.
